	has established so-called "support bases" (Stuetzpunkte), especially in industrial prioraty areas, and work is actually being accomplished in these bases. The young people are frequently more interested in the work of the CST than in that of the FDJ, since in the GST they have the chance to take lessons in such things as motorcycle driving. There is far less interest in theoretical studies.
ਜ ਼	In the MDJ Bezirk Directorate Potsdam, theoretical lessons within the framework of CST work were given each Monday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. However, only two or three functionaries participated. Similarly, during target practice on Saturday afternoons there were never more than five to eight functionaries present. When in conjunction with a Christman celebration a shooting booth was set up in the FDJ Bezirk Directorate, no more than eight persons participated.
4.	In the MEWA factory in Luckenwalde there existed as of early 1954 a club (Interessengemeinschaft) for aviation, in which 20 youths were participating. It was being directed by a former professional soldier who was a member of the Condor Legion and who entered the Soviet Zons from Test Germany.
